

Portable CuCuSO_4 Reference Electrode A-9021-001

The copper/copper half cell is the accepted standard for the measurement of structure to soil potentials. The half cells are supplied with a standard terminal, to which the measurement cable shall be directly connected.

